

European Voluntary Service Mission in an (inter)cultural centre!

Are you between 18 and 30 years old and from Spain? Do you want to gain experience in an international line of work with young people and, at the same time, discover the amazing city of Berlin and get to know French culture better?

The Centre Français de Berlin offers a European Voluntary Service (EVS) for a period of 12 months, 30 hours a week, starting from September 2019

The Centre Français de Berlin (CFB) is a non-profit organization whose mission is to contribute to international understanding in the fields of youth, education and culture in line with the European idea. This includes in particular:

- the organisation of international exchange projects for young people and professionals;
- the maintenance of the network "Diversity and Participation" with the support of the Franco-German Youth Office (OFAJ/DFJW);
- the coordination of the individual student exchange programme Voltaire;
- promoting professional mobility and supporting young people in their project in the partner country;
- The organization of a high-quality cultural and artistic programme via our Culture Office;
- Intercultural networking between our neighbours in the "Kiez" via various activities and events organized by and in the community garden Rote Beete.

What is the European Voluntary Service?

The European Voluntary Service (EVS) gives young people the opportunity to gain experience and acquire new skills, which are acknowledged and can facilitate the choice of a profession or the search for a job. Volunteer missions are neither salaried activities nor voluntary actions; above all, they require a strong social commitment.
