

France will host the Rugby World Cup 2023 in September, and on this occasion the association Parcours le Monde - Sud Ouest and the City of Toulouse are joining forces to welcome 30 European volunteers to help organize this event. These 30 volunteers will stay one month in Toulouse and will be part of the team of 400 volunteers who will welcome the foreign supporters.

We are looking for organizations that are certified as sending organizations for the European Solidarity Corps that will be able to propose applications for young people (4 or 6 young people per sending organization).

DATES

Volunteering dates: from 3/09/2023 to 30/09/2023

Travel dates: arrival on Saturday 2/09/2023 - departure on Sunday 01/10/2023

MISSIONS

- Welcoming the fans who come to Toulouse to support their teams: welcoming, entertaining, helping, animating, but also listening, interpreting, all of these benevolent attitudes will have to be put forward (in the days preceding the games).
- Conducting health education or eco-responsibility awareness missions for the general public.

PROFILES

- Be between 18 and 29 years old
- French language: A1 or A2
- English language (A2 or B1): English will be the language of communication between volunteers
- Send CV + cover letter in English + if possible video presentation (2 minutes max)
- Mixed groups (as many girls as boys) of 4 or 6 volunteers.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Each European volunteer will have a French sponsor chosen among the Toulouse volunteers to create a pair. They will be associated with the mission of welcoming and helping the supporters but will also be encouraged to share visits to Toulouse and leisure time.
- Throughout their mission, the volunteers will be in contact with :

- * The municipal agent in charge of the volunteers' unit. He will be their main contact and will set up specific working times with the ESC volunteers.
- * A young organizer recruited to supervise the young people in the European Solidarity Corps, who will be housed throughout the month of September in the same accommodation as the volunteers.
- * The Parcours le Monde team in charge of welcoming the volunteers, and leading group and individual activities throughout the project (group cohesion, objective of the volunteer work, follow-up, intermediate and final assessment, etc.).
- Volunteers will be mobilized on game days to meet with fans and offer activities in the city. They will not be able to attend the games.
- Cultural visits will be scheduled for the volunteers to discover the city of Toulouse and the Occitany region.
